ROOT TO RISE

A 3 Month Sacred Container

From Fear to Faith. From Root to Rise.

With Akkshitta · theseekier.in

There is a version of you that exists beyond the patterns, the wounds, the stories you have been carrying.

Beyond what happened in this lifetime. Beyond what was passed down through your family. Beyond even what your conscious mind can reach.

Root to Rise is the journey to that version of you.

We go to where it all began. And we heal it there.

What This Container Is

This is the most complete, most sacred work I offer.

In 3 months, we go all the way. Past this lifetime, into past lives, into the root of every pattern that has been running your story. We find where it started. And we heal it there.

Everything from reading, live healing, distance healing, mindset work, remedies and WhatsApp support is included. But this is not a collection of services. It is one continuous, deeply held journey.

I am with you every single day. Healing is being sent to you every single day. And whenever it is guided, we meet more than once in a week.

This is not a programme. This is a transformation.

And we do not rush. Every step of this journey moves at the pace your soul needs. Because healing that is integrated lasts. We make sure you do not just receive the work but truly absorb it, embody it and carry it forward.

You enter this container as one person. You leave as another.

Something That Makes This Unique

In this container, something can happen that goes beyond healing.

If it is guided if your energy is ready I may teach you healing modalities. Or something deeper may open. Gifts that have been dormant in you, waiting for the right conditions to awaken.

Not everyone experiences this. It depends entirely on what your soul is ready for. But it has happened. And when it does, it changes everything.

Sometimes healing does not just fix what is broken. It reveals what was always there.

What Becomes Different After Root to Rise

In a single session something shifts. In a pack patterns begin to break. In Root to Rise — you are rebuilt from the inside.

This is what that actually looks like in your life —

Inside you —

- ◆ The void you could not explain starts to fill
- ◆ The heaviness you have been carrying for years begins to lift
- ◆ You stop pushing yourself through the day and start actually living it
- ◆ Your nervous system learns what safety feels like — maybe for the first time
- ◆ The wounds you came in with do not just heal. They become your wisdom.

In your relationships —

- ◆ You start connecting deeper to yourself first
- ◆ Your perception of relationships begins to change
- ◆ You start seeing situations from a bigger picture instead of reacting from pain
- ◆ You begin to attract healthier and more aligned relationships naturally
- ◆ What you were tolerating starts to feel clearer — and so does what you deserve

In your work and finances —

- ◆ You show up with presence, clarity and the right energy
- ◆ Decisions that used to paralyse you start to feel clear
- ◆ The block that kept your money stuck begins to move
- ◆ Your sense of purpose stops feeling like a question and starts feeling like a direction

In how you handle life —

- ◆ Situations that used to feel chaotic start to feel manageable
- ◆ You stop reacting from fear and start responding from your truest self
- ◆ You become someone who handles life — not someone life is happening to
- ◆ And you discover that you always had this power. It was just buried.

One thing to know —

How fast and how deeply these shifts show up depends on you.

- ◆ Your commitment to the remedies given
- ◆ Your faith in the process
- ◆ Your consistency in showing up for your own healing

When all three come together, the transformation is real and it lasts. Every person's journey moves at the pace their soul needs. But when you show up for your healing, your healing shows up for you.

You will not just feel better. You will finally feel like yourself — perhaps for the first time.

What You Leave With

This work is not designed to make you dependent on healing or on me.

- ◆ The awareness to understand your own patterns before they consume you
- ◆ The tools to work with your own energy going forward
- ◆ The inner knowing to make decisions from your truest self
- ◆ The confidence to trust yourself — in relationships, in work, in life
- ◆ You become your own healer. Your own guide. Your own problem solver.

That is the real transformation. Not that life becomes perfect. But that you become someone who knows how to meet it.

For Those Who Wish To Go Further

Some journeys do not end in 3 months. They deepen.

For those who feel called to continue an extension beyond the 3 months is available. Many who have walked through Root to Rise have chosen to go deeper, to work on further layers, to expand into what opened during the container.

If you wish to explore an extension, we discuss it personally at the close of your 3 months.

The Investment

This is a significant investment in yourself, in your healing, in the version of you that is waiting on the other side of this work.

The investment details are shared personally after your application is reviewed.

This investment was not decided by me. It was channeled. My guides gave me this number for this container.

How To Apply
